HAVE A SATURDAY TO SHARE?

Because we all have stuff to do, Saturdays are tough days to fill at our highway exhibit in the Barn. But they are also good days to share our information with visitors and make some money in our Barn Store as well.

We need people to take either a morning and afternoon shift. Could you offer just one half day a month or more, and be part of a Saturday Corps of Volunteers? It is fun to greet visitors and those curious about the highway. And, the Barn is air-conditioned. Call LeAnn at 503-661-2164.

BARN STORE HAS GOOD GOODS

Don’t miss the chance to buy your Historic Highway 100th Anniversary items. We have cups, posters, cards, playing cards, and of course, our own King of Roads poster by Mike Rangner. You can get a print, signed and numbered by Mike, for $80 (a discount if you are a member). A nice present to stow away for the holidays.

THANK YOU, VOLUNTEERS

Thank you to: Diane White, Carol and Teresa Allen who set up and took down for our first July concert at the Barn. And to Jerry and Zach Hudson for great music.

Kelly Broomall works every Friday and the occasional Saturday hosting the Depot Museum.

Darlene Anderson has volunteered to inventory the Depot in preparation for the remodeling.

Sharon Nesbit and Marilee Thompson put together not one, but two grant applications seeking money to paint our historic caboose. Len Otto volunteered to clean out a really messy corner in our former shop/kitchen at the back of the barn, preparatory to spiffing up the office. Does anyone have an office chair to donate?

And thank you to our Reynolds Reunion Committee for planning and working on our Oct. 16 gathering. And to Julie Stewart who continues to corral and catalog old photos at the Depot.

Randall Perez, an erstwhile neighbor of our Barn, volunteered his time, talents, and equipment to spiff up the sad-looking, puddle-riddled gravel in front of our Barn. Two loads of gravel and three hours of his labor paid off with the front of the museum looking well maintained and cared for.

VISITORS, VISITORS, AND MORE VISITORS (WooHoo!)

Volunteer Hazel Webb went through our guest book and calculated that about 1,800 people have signed in since we opened last July. That does not count those who came in large groups and gatherings when there was no time to sign the guest book, so, we are easily over 2,000 guests.

Our visitors include many folks from the Sandy River RV Park. We have truck drivers who walk up from the truck stop looking for things to see and do. This summer we have had many walkers, just strolling by and happy to see our museum there and open.

MORE THANKS

Many thanks to Hazel Webb, Jeanette Kloos, Bettianne Goetz, Kay Struckman, Linda Simkovic, Joy Beldin, Joyce Belcher, Darlene Anderson, Norm & Charlene Thomas, Andrea Heim, Joanne Losinger, Jon & Audrey Lowe, Sharon Nesbit, Len Otto, Kelly Broomall, Helen Wand, and LeAnn Stephen for keeping the doors open. And thanks to Al and Joyce Stoeckel for keeping the Barn and Harlow House looking neat and tidy for our guests. Steve Yost helps out with maintenance.

Thank you all!
